

STANLEY PARK ECOLOGY SOCIETY

The Young Naturalist's Club

10 am-noon Saturday, February 6

Swifter? Higher? Stronger? Warm up for the Winter Olympics with us as we discover what sets Stanley Park's plants and animals apart. Can you match their amazing accomplishments? This monthly event is for children with their parents to enjoy nature exploration. First Saturday of every month. Meet at the Stanley Park Nature House.

Nature & the Single Girl! (and Guy)

1-3 pm Sunday, February 14

Think your partner isn't romantic? Think everyone is in a couple but you? We will take a look at both nature's most romantic creatures and biggest scallywags! This walk through the park looks at the courting and mating habits of Stanley Park creatures. Meet at the Stanley Park Nature House at Lost Lagoon. $5 Members/Seniors/Children; $10 Non-members.

Birds of a Feather!

9-11 am Sunday, February 28

Know your birds! Join expert birder Cathy Aitchison to explore Stanley Park's varied and beautiful bird life. Meet at the Stanley Park Nature House. Last Sunday of every month. Pay what you can.

SPECIAL GAMES TIME HEADS-UP! SPES WELCOMES YOU TO A WORLD OF NATURE!

In the middle of a major metropolitan area lies nearly a thousand acres of temperate rainforests and wetlands, storied in cultural and natural history. This is Stanley Park.

During the Olympics, take an Eco Walk on the wild side, through the stunning wetlands and forests of Stanley Park. Join one of our skilled interpreters for an hour walk into this marvelous jewel of Canadian urban parks.

Walks leave from the Stanley Park Information Booth
